

Got Talent ? Hidden Treasures Delivers ❖ ❖ ❖ ❖ ❖

Hidden Treasures is an arts education program designed to enhance the quality of life for developmentally disabled people by nurturing creativity, self expression, and self esteem.

This year's Hidden Treasures Talent Show, held at Seven Bridges Middle School in Chappaqua, was a resounding success.

Held on Friday, June 15, over 100 HT students sang, danced and showed off their artwork in front of a large audience of enthusiastic family and friends.

To the delight of the audience, the Hidden Treasures troop performed an African number they learned in the Billy Ayers Musical Drama class.

Hidden Treasures' artists displayed unique, handcrafted, pieces, which they made in Christa Zago's Arts & Crafts class.

The Creative Arts class showed off their creations chorus line style!

Hidden Treasures was launched in 1997 and today offers classes in Arts and Crafts, Studio Art, Creative Writing, Dance Kinetics, Tai Chi, Tap and Modern Dance, Drama and Song.

Sessions are held at the Richard G. Rosenthal JCC in Pleasantville, NY.
